

Clearing your criminal record through expungement can help you find a job and move on from a criminal charge

Expungement Guidebook

What is expungement?

In Kentucky, when you are charged with a crime or convicted of a crime, that information stays on your criminal record. Expungement is the legal process of completely removing an arrest, charge, or conviction from your record.

Why should I get an expungement?

If you get an expungement, all records relating to the charge or conviction are deleted. It means that you can answer “NO” when asked on an application if you have been convicted of a crime. This can help you find a job or a place to live.

How do I know if I’m eligible to get an expungement?

Only certain things can be removed from your record in Kentucky. You may be eligible if:

- You have misdemeanor or Class D felony convictions
- You were acquitted or charges against you were dismissed
- You received a pardon from the governor

Don't charges automatically fall off my record after 5 or 10 years?

No. Nothing is removed from your record without getting an expungement.

Before seeking an expungement, figure out if you are eligible under Kentucky law by using the following flowcharts.

How do I get an expungement?

STEP 1: Get a Certificate of Eligibility.

- You must have a Certificate of Eligibility to request an expungement. This costs $40, and you can get it online here: courts.ky.gov/expungement
 - You can also request your certificate by mail. Send the Certification Form with a $40 money order to: Records Unit / Administrative Office of the Courts / 1001 Vandalay Drive / Frankfort, KY 40601
- Your packet will confirm whether you are eligible to expunge your record. If the packet says that you are not eligible, its always possible there was a mistake. You may still file for expungement if you'd like, but you may want to consult with an attorney first.

STEP 2: File your packet and expungement request form with the court.

- Once you receive your certification packet, you or your attorney have 30 days to file your documents with the court. After that time, your certification packet will expire.
- You must file in the county where the conviction took place. Find location information here: courts.ky.gov/courts/clerks
- For an acquittal or dismissal, file the Acquittal/Dismissal Expungement Form along with your certification packet.
 - There is no fee to expunge an acquittal or dismissal.
- For a misdemeanor conviction, file the Misdemeanor Conviction Expungement Form along with your certification packet.
 - Expunging a misdemeanor conviction costs $100 per case. If your expungement is not granted, you will be refunded $50. A judge may schedule a hearing. If so, it will be within one month of filing.
- For a Class D felony conviction, file the Application to Vacate Felony Conviction Form and attach your certification packet.
 - Expunging a Class D felony costs $500 per case. If your expungement is not granted, you will be refunded $450. It may take up to four months for the judge to make a decision.

Frequently Asked Questions

Can I expunge an acquittal or dismissal?

If you were found not guilty or charges against you were dismissed with prejudice, you will be eligible to expunge those charges 60 days later. If you went to a grand jury and were not indicted, you will be eligible to expunge those charges 12 months later.

If I expunge my felony, will I be able to vote?

Your voting rights will be restored as long as you have no other felonies remaining on your record. Register here: <https://vrsws.sos.ky.gov/ovrweb/>

I got a pardon from the governor. Does that mean my record is clear?

No. After receiving a pardon, convictions will remain on your record, and you still must acknowledge them. You may apply to expunge your pardoned convictions to completely remove them from your record.

Can I expunge a federal conviction?

Currently, there is no procedure for expunging federal convictions. Some legislators are working to pass a law, the REDEEM Act, which would create a federal expungement process.

What if I have convictions in different counties?

If you have convictions in different counties, you will need to file separately in each county as well as paying the expungement fee in each county. You can use the same Certificate of Eligibility for each.

How could an expungement affect my immigration status?

If you are not a United States citizen, speak with an immigration attorney before filing for expungement. Expungement of your criminal case may be harmful to any current or future immigration action.

Do I need an attorney?

You may file for expungement on your own, without an attorney. However, the law can be tricky! Clean Slate Kentucky has a list of resources – private attorneys and low income options – on our website.
